

Indian Council of Medical Research is participating in the Pride of India Expo being organized during the 106th Indian Science Congress being held at Lovely Professional University during 3-7 Jan., 2019. The ICMR is showcasing its activities and achievements by displaying posters, live demonstrations, pamphlets, etc. Three Institutes of the ICMR viz National Institute of Malaria Research, New Delhi; National Institute of Nutrition, Hyderabad and National Institute of Occupational Health, Ahmedabad are showcasing their achievements. The NIMR is displaying live mosquito larvae, larvivorous fishes, malaria parasites, etc. The NIOH is displaying Personal Cooling Jacket developed by the Institute. Dr Harsh Vardhan, Hon'ble Union Minister of Science & Tech, Environment, and Earth Sci visited the ICMR Stall where Dr Neeraj Tandon apprised him of various activities and achievements of the ICMR. A large number of visitors including students, research scholars, faculties are visiting the ICMR Stall.