Sir/Madam,

The Training Division of Department of Personnel & Training, is the nodal agency of the Government of India for the training related matters. The Training Division is guided by the National Training Policy (NTP), 1996 for carrying out its various activities. One of the basic objectives of the NTP is to achieve "Training for All".

2. To make training and learning opportunities available to a larger section of the government functionaries, the Training Division has launched a new Programme of Distance & E-Learning Programmes for Government Employees (DELPGE) in collaboration with the Indira Gandhi National Open University (IGNOU), New Delhi.

3. The purpose of the DELPGE Programme is to increase the availability and flexibility of options open to employees for enhancing their knowledge and skills in order to improve the functioning of Government organisations and the delivery of services to the public. The Programme is open to Central Employees (working in Ministries/Departments/Attached offices) and the faculty members of State Apex Training Institutions.

4. Under the DELPGE Programme, the eligible employee has to directly enrol for the particular course/degree/diploma programme in response to IGNOU's Academic Calendar and pay the course fee upfront. The amount so paid shall be reimbursed to the employee by IGNOU on his/her successful completion of the course. The other details of the DELPGE Programme may be viewed at <http://persmin.nic.in/otraining/Index.asp>.

5. The DELPGE Programme may be given wide publicity and prominently highlighted in official websites of Ministries/Departments/attached offices of GoI and State Administrative Training Institutes.

Yours faithfully,

CD/MT
