

This book contains perception of filariasis as described in Ayurvedic, Unani, Siddha and Allopathic Systems of Medicine followed by diagnosis and management of disease by use of plants with information of plant botanical, Ayurvedic description properties, traditional use, chemical constituents, clinical data, toxicity/safety aspects etc.